

Total Ozone (65°S to 65°N)

Model calculation of past global ozone changes and future projections for ozone change assuming that the provisions of the Montreal Protocol are followed. The calculation of past changes included the effects of increasing chlorine and bromine, solar cycle UV variations, and volcanic aerosol changes. The annually averaged Toms data are shown for comparison. The projected future changes include the effects of decreasing chlorine and bromine as well as solar cycle UV changes.